

Reading Course Form:

A Reading Course is an independent study under the direction of a faculty member.

Notes:

The topic must be outside undergraduate offerings.

It is the student's responsibility to confirm a Supervisor for a Reading Course.

The student must be enrolled in a Specialist or Major Mathematics program.

Not eligible for CR/NCR option.

May take one Reading Course at a time.

Minimum CGPA of 3.5 in math courses required, as well as permission of the Associate Undergraduate Chair.

Not eligible to be used towards program requirements.

SECTION 1: To be filled out by the Student

Date:	Student Number:
Last Name:	First Name:
College:	Subject POST:
CGPA:	Email:

SECTION 2: To be filled out by the Supervisor

Course Level: Indicate the course level that best fit the complexity of research - 3rd year =300, 4th year =400 and Duration (H or Y). Note: an H course consists of 36 lecture hours plus tutorials and exams, a Y course consists of 72 lecture hours plus tutorials and exams.
Course Topic:
Course Content:
Course Format (e.g. weekly meetings):
Course Marking Scheme: indicate the components of the final course mark. (E.g., Final essay, participation, homework assignments, etc.)

Supervisor/Instructor Name (please print):
Supervisor/Instructor Approval (signature):	Date:

SECTION 3: Departmental Approval

Course Number Assigned:
Department Approval: (print and sign name)	Date: